Information about the right of revocation

The customer has the right to revoke the contract within 4 weeks after the instructions about the right of revocation have been received. To revoke the contract at the due date it is enough to send out the written request in time. The revocation request doesn't need an explanation and needs to be sent in writing to TKS.

Nevertheless if the revocation request came in time, the customer is in charge to pay the price for the usage, as listed in the pricelist. The right of revocation expires if the service was used more than one time after the service was activated.

¹ Multiple usage of the access information at the same time is not allowed.

² The connection gets interrupted after 24 hours continued usage. The reconnection is possible immediately.
