What is important to know about traveling in the USA with a German network provider (SIM-Card) and / or a German mobile device:

USA networks discontinuation

USA Mobile carriers are shutting down many networks, which rely on older technologies, to make room for more advanced network services, including 5G. As a result, many older mobile devices will be unable to make or receive calls (including emergency calls), texts, and use data services. This will affect all mobile devices and providers that do not support Voice over LTE (VoLTE or HD Voice).

What is Voice over LTE (VoLTE)?

VoLTE stands for Voice over LTE and provides calls via the LTE network and uses the latest mobile communications standard and the strongest connection. With the VoLTE option there are no monthly basic charges. Charges only apply for connections being made, that are not included in your chosen tariff and/or additional options and will be charged according to the actual easyMobile price list. VoLTE does not use up any data volume.

Note: The mobile device must support VoLTE to be able to use this service.

What happens when Voice over LTE (VoLTE) is not available?

Without the possibility of telephoning via LTE, the mobile phone automatically logs into the operator's GSM or UMTS network, which is fine in Germany, but becomes a big problem at the moment when traveling within the USA. The USA has unfortunately discontinued these networks.

What networks are still available & which frequency ranges are required in the USA?

Data transmission in the LTE network requires the frequencies 850 and 1900 Mhz.

For the best possible connection, we recommend 700, 850 and 1900 MHz (Band 12, 5 and 2).

These networks are no longer supported in the USA:

As of January 1st, 2017 - 2G GSM, GPRS and EDGE networks

As of January 1st, 2022 - HSPA+, UMTS and HSPA networks

LTE – is supported and here the end device must be able to support the frequencies 850 and 1900 Mhz.

For the best possible connection, we recommend 700, 850 and 1900 MHz, i.e., band 12, 5 and 2.

Note: When entering the USA, it is important to turn on the feature Voice over LTE (VoLTE) and then do a restart on the mobile device. Also, you will receive a SMS. This will unfortunately be in German, but you will be able to see the providers name listed, these listed names are from providers that are better for reception in the area you are presently in.

Making calls still a problem?

If you have the correct hardware that uses the required frequencies and you have VoLTE activated and still are having difficulty to make phone calls, try the following Alternative:

Due to your easyTravel option you can use your data that is included in your tariff without extra charge. While you have data service and only problem with calling, a good alternative is the use of a VoIP (Voice over IP) software to establish calling connections. There are many VoIP services: TKS offers the easyConnect Mobile Global option over the myTKS App, or there are many other providers for e.g.: WhatsApp, Skype, Google Hangouts, Facebook Messenger, etc....

Note: Some VoIP service providers allow you to skip dialing 011 before placing an international call. If this feature is turned on, just leave out the 011 U.S. exit code.

How to book a ReisePaket Data option

General Information:	Activate "data roaming" in your cell phone settings before you send the text message to activate service. A data connection is only established if you book a Data travel package. You will receive an SMS when you have reached 80% of your data volume budget. You can book another Data travel package at any time. If you have used up your included budget or have reached the end of the booked period, we will automatically terminate the connection. The packages are only available over the APN: web.vodafone.de or cda.vodafone.de MultiSIM usage: when using multiple SIM cards, the main card must be used to activate the option. The options can then be used on all SIM cards. However, not all foreign mobile networks allow simultaneous data connections with multiple SIM cards. In this case, only one device can be used at a time (disable all other data connections).
